INDRODUCTION

This World is a beautiful place designed for the human species to live in harmony and peace. But the greed of mankind has led to unprecedented social evils, unimaginable difficulties, economic crises and unknown diseases. Amongst these are the poor children who are more vulnerable and are affected by the conditions at home as well as in society. Education has not been possible for every child and the worst condition is that girl children and women need special care and protection as they are vulnerable to social evils and gender bias. To support these vulnerable children, to eradicate poverty and illiteracy and to create a healthy and hygienic environment we have taken initiatives through various programs and this is the annual report of 2023-2024.

Our programs

Education:

Samugam Trust gives priority to educating. In the academic year 2023-24 through our initiatives, 31 girls and 16 boys benefitted from our support. For school-going boys and girls, the organisation runs separate homes in Puducherry. The organization provides valuable education with all required educational materials, the internet, laptops and taps. Hygienic food is also provided to the children in our home.

Home for children:

Gypsy Community

At the beginning of the financial year 2023-2024 entire world was affected by the Cyclone. In Puducherry, more community people faced the struggles without jobs, food and basic needs. Samugam was on the ground to resolve the need of the hour and distributed food items, groceries and medical items. Hundreds of families benefitted from this event. During this time Samugam distributed sanitisers, masks, napkins and daily care materials like baste and soap to the Gypsy community. Samugam distributed tarpaulin sheets in the Gypsy area during the cyclone. Medical camps for Gypsy community people and children were organised. A Crèche in the Gypsy area functions to inculcate school-going habits and to inculcate play way learning for the gypsy children.
